Student Media Consent and Release Form

In efforts to promote positive school activities and achievements, many students are featured in video, television, radio, online, social media, print materials, and other media. Authors Dianne de Las Casas and John Couret will be visiting our school to present their Captain Deadeye Stop Bullying! Be a Lifesaver! Program. They will be spreading their message of positivity through the use of various media.

I, as the parent or guardian of (print student's name) _____, hereby give Write Hook Media, LLC, its representatives, authors, and authorized media organizations permission to print, photograph, and record my child for use in audio, video, film, or any other electronic, digital and printed media. This is with the understanding that neither Write Hook Media, LLC nor its representatives will reproduce said photograph, interview, or likeness for any commercial value nor receive monetary gain for use of any reproduction/broadcast of said photograph or likeness.

I am also fully aware that I will not receive monetary compensation for my child's participation. I further release and relieve Write Hook Media, LLC and its representatives from any liabilities, known or unknown, arising out of the use of this material. I certify that I have read the Student Media Consent and Release Liability statement and fully understand its terms and conditions. Please understand that failure to return this release form within five (5) school days from the date of distribution will constitute approval of the above requests.
